

As required by Section 5.02.04, of the City's Land Development Code, if you object to the proposed special exception, then you must file a written affidavit of objection to the City Clerk no later than 24 hours prior to the City Council hearing. The affidavit of objection must be provided in the following form:

State of Florida

County of Pasco

On this day personally appeared before me, the undersigned notary public, Loelle Smith who first being duly sworn, deposes and says that he/she has an ownership interest in that certain real property known as 6043 Man St, New Port Richey, Florida, which is within a radius of five hundred (500) feet of any of the corners of the real property known as 6414 Madison Street, New Port Richey, Florida, which is proposed for a special exception for the following reasons: (State reasons of objection below.)

I am against having 2 story town houses. The amount 4 units in a small space. My main concerns are 1) the units will become low income rentals over time & will not be maintained. 2) congestion in the area esp with easy-way for fire dept on madison. 3) drainage issues.

Further affiant sayeth not.

Loelle Smith

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 3 day of Dec., 2020.

My Commission Expires: December 18, 2020

I would prefer to see either single family homes as the rest of the area or cute shops instead of more apts. I think these apartments would detract from the "small town" feel that we love in New Port Richey.

I am unable to attend this meeting because I am following COVID 19 restrictions and can not attend gatherings.
