

Sec. 2.03. - Compensation; expenses.

The city council may determine the annual salary of city councilmembers by ordinance, but no ordinance increasing such salary shall become effective until the date of commencement of the terms of councilmembers elected at the next regular election, provided that such election follows the adoption of such ordinance by at least six (6) months. City councilmembers shall receive their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties of office in accordance with Florida Statute and/or approved city regulations. The salary of the council shall be established in recognition of the principle that the service of the city council is a matter of public service and is not actual compensation for services rendered.
